Language map of India

Most common primary language by district

(primary language)

30 were spoken by more than a million native speakers. English is used in higher education and in some areas of the Indian government. Hindi, the language most commonly spoken as a mother tongue (primary language) in India, serves as the lingua franca across much of north and central India. Bengali is the second most commonly spoken primary language, with a significant number of speakers in eastern and northeastern regions.

Translators without Borders. April 20th 2020

National boundaries were adjusted to conform to the UN recognized territory. Source: 2011 India Population Census.