

Language map of Malawi

Most common primary language

|  |       |   |         |   |       |
|--|-------|---|---------|---|-------|
|  | Chewa |  | Timbuka |  | Yao   |
|  | Sena  |  | Tonga   |  | Other |

According to the 1998 Census of Malawi, the country has 13 major languages. Chewa, the country's national language, is spoken by 70% of the population as their first language and is the most widely spoken language in the country, while English, the country's official language, is more often used as a second language.