

TWB welcomes TRSB as new Gold sponsor

Danbury, CT, USA, October 12, 2021 – Translators without Borders (TWB), part of CLEAR Global, is delighted to announce TRSB Inc. (TRSB) as a new Gold sponsor.

This sponsorship acknowledges the importance of international collaboration for communication and global dialogue. It will help raise awareness of the need to bridge the world's language gaps, and help more people be heard. This sponsorship follows news of the organization's transition to CLEAR Global. CLEAR Global brings together decades of research and aid experience, language technology and AI expertise, and TWB, the world's largest community of humanitarian linguists.

TRSB is one of North America's leading translation providers, pioneering reliable, groundbreaking solutions to amplify its clients' business opportunities. TRSB is driven by a passion to bring its customers' brands to life, accurately and relevantly adding value to their content in a timely manner, across channels.

"We are delighted to help support TWB in its humanitarian efforts. I strongly believe that translators play a vital role in breaking down linguistic barriers as well as facilitating cultural diversity and inclusion," said Mary Kazamias, CEO of TRSB. "Thank you, TWB, for giving us the opportunity to contribute in any way we can to such an important cause, and one that is so close to our hearts as translators."

"We're very grateful to TRSB for their contribution toward our mission to help people get vital information and be heard, whatever language they speak. As we transitioned to CLEAR Global, looking to further increase our impact with research and AI-based language technologies, every support is valuable, especially when it comes from the industry leaders," said Aimee Ansari, CEO of CLEAR Global.
